

KLove serves my community daily. I listen to the station in the car and office each day. There is no other station like it available to me. KLove serves the public interest by adding another choice of programming that is unique from other stations. Please don't allow it to be displaced by LPFM broadcasting.